Types of Nursing Education & Degrees

- Private Nursing School
 - Diploma or certificate program
 - Offered through a hospital college or private college
- ASN
 - Associate of Science in Nursing degree
 - Offered at State Colleges or Community Colleges
- BSN
 - Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree
 - Offered at State Universities
- RN-BSN
 - Completion program for currently licensed Registered Nurses (RNs)
 - Offered at State Colleges or Community Colleges
 - Offered at State Universities

BSN Degree & RN License

Nursing Degree

- ASN and BSN are degrees that a student earns.
- ✓ General BSN Curriculum
- Preparation for licensure as an RN.
- Specializations: After graduation/RN license or may require graduate coursework after you earn the BSN.

RN License

- RN is the license a student earns, after passing the NCLEX exam.
- ✓ NCLEX is a national exam administered by individual states.

NCLEX-RN Pass Rates BSN programs 2020:

- National pass rate = 90.3%
- State of Florida pass rate = 86.5%
- UCF pass rate = 97% *2021

Accreditation:

#1

UCF educates the most newly licensed BSN nurses in the state university system - 92% stay in Florida.

Nursing Honors in the Major students took home top honors in research from UCF 10 years in a row.

97%

NCLEX-RN first-time pass rate of recent BSN graduates - far exceeding state and national averages

Limited Access Major

A student's major when entering UCF:

- “Nursing Pending” when applying to a pre-licensure program (Second Degree, Traditional or Concurrent SSC and VC)
- “RN Nursing Pending” when applying to a post-licensure program.
- “AS Nursing Pending” when applying to the Statewide Concurrent program and have completed 1 semester of an ASN program within the Florida College System

What does a limited access program mean?

- ✓ Students must apply to a BSN program, and be accepted into the program, in order to take nursing courses.

BSN Program Options

Concurrent BSN Quick Facts

What is a Concurrent program?

- ✓ It is a partnership between UCF and Seminole State or Valencia. You are completing your nursing education through UCF and the partner college at the same time.
 1. You will earn an ASN degree in from Seminole or Valencia, while completing UCF's BSN coursework at same time.
 2. You take the NCLEX (licensing exam) upon earning the ASN degree, in order to obtain your RN license.
 3. You will graduate with your BSN degree from UCF, earning both degrees in just 6 semesters.

Am I a UCF student the entire time?

- ✓ YES! You are a student at both colleges (UCF and the partner college) until the ASN degree is earned. You are a UCF student throughout the entire program.

How do I apply to a Concurrent program?

- You must meet the application criteria for UCF and the Concurrent College in order to apply and be considered for admission.
- You submit a total of 4 applications: one to each college (2), and one to each nursing program (2).

APPLICATION PROCESS

The image is a low-angle photograph of the 'Reiter auf dem Felsen' (Knight on the Rock) statue in Berlin. The statue, made of dark, angular metal, depicts a knight on a rearing horse, holding a flag aloft. The scene is set against a bright, hazy sky with scattered clouds. In the background, a cityscape is visible, including a building with a circular logo on its facade and a large tree on the right. The overall lighting is warm and bright, creating a high-contrast, almost ethereal atmosphere.
