

Tamara Luman, MSN/Ed, RN

Professor of Nursing | Nurse Educator | Curriculum & Clinical Education Leader

Titusville, FL

☎ 321-693-0057 | ✉ tammieluman@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dynamic nursing educator with over 25 combined years of hospital, academic and clinical teaching experience across healthcare including, undergraduate nursing, simulation, skills lab, clinical practicum, and online instruction. Proven leader in course coordination, curriculum development, faculty collaboration, and student success initiatives, including large-cohort instruction (75–110+ students per semester). Recognized for translating complex clinical concepts into engaging, outcomes-driven learning experiences while mentoring students and faculty in academic and clinical excellence.

AREAS OF INSTRUCTIONAL EXPERTISE

- Nursing Education (Didactic, Lab, Simulation & Clinical)
- Course & Curriculum Coordination
- Student Assessment & Competency Evaluation
- Dedicated Education Unit (DEU) Development
- Faculty Mentoring & Preceptor Training
- Online & Hybrid Instruction
- Evidence-Based Practice Integration
- NCLEX & Clinical Readiness Preparation
- Learning Management Systems & Online Course Design

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Professor of Nursing (Tenured)

Seminole State College of Nursing – Altamonte Springs, FL

August 2018 – Present

- Provide overall coordination, facilitation, and management of didactic, laboratory, simulation, and clinical components for core nursing courses
- Course Coordinator for Nursing Skills and Basic Medical Surgical Nursing with enrollments ranging from 75–110+ students per semester
- Led launch and implementation of Complex Medical-Surgical Dedicated Education Unit (DEU), collaborating with clinical partners to align academic and practice expectations
- Designed and delivered competency-based skills instruction, simulation scenarios, and clinical evaluations to ensure student readiness and patient safety
- Mentored adjunct and full-time faculty; served in leadership roles on curriculum, testing, and student success committees
- Recognized for adaptability during curriculum changes, online transitions, and high-enrollment course delivery

Courses include (representative):

- Nursing Skills (Lab & Simulation)
- Basic & Complex Medical-Surgical Nursing
- Health Assessment Lab
- Practicum & Client Care Management
- Clinical Rounding & DEU Instruction

Adjunct Faculty

University of Central Florida – College of Nursing

March 2016 – August 2018

- Delivered clinical, simulation, lecture, and online instruction across adult health, psychiatric nursing, public health, and practicum courses
- Served as Online Instructor for Pathophysiology (RN-to-BSN program)
- Provided simulation instruction for multi-discipline skills days, supporting large cohorts of undergraduate nursing students
- Consistently recognized for clear instruction, student engagement, and clinical relevance

CLINICAL & EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Education Coordinator / Nurse Educator

Parrish Medical Center – Titusville, FL | 2002–2017

- Led orientation and continuing education for registered nurses, graduate nurses, CNAs, and support staff
- Developed and instructed contact-hour courses, including ACLS, BLS, preceptor development, and patient safety initiatives
- Played a key role in online education platform development and annual competency training
- Facilitated hospital-wide education initiatives reaching 300+ staff members

CERTIFICATIONS & LICENSURE

- Florida Registered Nurse (Active)
- ACLS Provider (Current)
- BLS Provider (Current)
- NIH Stroke Scale Certification
- Lean Six Sigma – Yellow Belt
- Online Learning Development Certificate

PROFESSIONAL LEADERSHIP & SERVICE

- Chair, First Semester Team Committee
- Member, Curriculum Committee
- Chair, Sunshine Club
- Employee Excellence Committee (College-Wide)
- Training Center Faculty, American Heart Association

HONORS & RECOGNITION

- Outstanding Alumni Nominee – College of Nursing
- Professional Nurse Recognition Award
- Participant, National Nursing Knowledge Assessment Tool Validation
- Multiple Academic Honor Society Invitations